ABOUT US

Destino Travels, formerly known as Radisson, was founded in 2009 and later rebranded due to a patent issue. It is a well-established travel company with over 15 years of industry experience. Under the leadership of Yasir Shafiq, the company delivers reliable travel services to corporates, travel agents, and individual clients.

Over the years, we have managed a high volume of travel operations while maintaining consistent service standards. Our services include hotel accommodations, tours, transfers, flights, and visas, supported by a strong global network and inventory. We also support travel partners through our B2B platform for easy access and management of travel services.

Our focus remains on delivering efficient and dependable services. Service quality, professionalism, and attention to detail define how we operate, ensuring smooth execution and long-term client trust.
